budget meetings with department heads under a policy that would hold expenditures to the same level as last year with the exception of salaries which they have indicated may increase under a 7% ceiling.

Town Counsel Donald Fleming explained a request for an $18,000 budget. He said that it is impossible to forecast the legal costs because the town is involved in more and more litigation. However, he said that he would do whatever possible to stay within the approved amount.

Fire Chief Paul Bradley accepted a Selectmen's request for a $550. reduction in a gasoline estimate with the understanding that it would be restored if necessary.

The budget was approved at $35,275.00. Chief Bradley said that the town must soon consider replacing a truck which is over age. He mentioned the electric bill for the fire barn had doubled in one month and the heating cost had risen sharply. Bradley said that the problem is compounded because the heat is spilled completely when the doors are opened.

Both Plumbing Inspector George Heath and Wire Inspector Russell Peirce were granted increased fees and Selectmen will increase the charges to homeowners to compensate. Previously, the cost of a license has included inspections to see that the work is properly done. Now any recall inspection will be charged at $10. per call. Peirce said that economic conditions have forced many homeowners to do their own work which has increased the need for return inspections.

Selectmen approved a $9,500.00 budget for Wharf Commissioner/Harbormaster Lloyd Haskell for maintenance and repair of the town wharf. The ice in the

Heart Answers

WHAT IS CONGENITAL HEART DISEASE?

Congenital heart disease is the abnormal development of the heart before a child is born. A congenital heart defect may be diagnosed at birth or it may be discovered at some time during childhood in a routine physical examination. Some defects may be caused by drugs taken during pregnancy or exposure to German measles (rubella) during pregnancy. They may be inherited, or the cause may be unknown. Congenital heart defects may require only minimal medical supervision or they may require corrective surgery to avoid complications later in life. Some congenital heart defects can be prevented by vaccination of the mother against rubella prior to pregnancy and by following a doctor's advice while taking medications during pregnancy. Contact your local American Heart Association for more information.

WHAT IS STROKE?

A stroke occurs when the blood supply to part of the brain is halted by either a clot, a ruptured vessel or pressure on the blood vessel by a tumor. Strokes are more likely to occur when arteries leading to the brain have been previously damaged by a disease process called hardening of the arteries. Warning signs of a possible stroke may include temporary loss of speech, loss of vision or double vision, unexplained headaches or dizziness. Regular medical checkups are the best protection against strokes. Contact your local American Heart Association for more information.

Old Colony Competition

It's a rare thing these days to hear about anything positive happening in our schools. The usual story is about teacher strikes, problems with discipline, or unpopular budget cuts. This is a different story. It's about the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (also called VICA).

Tuesday, February 10, was a comparatively quiet day at Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School, but it wasn't for lack of activity. Students were competing to see who had learned the most in their respective trades. They diagnosed automotive problems, styled hair, and wired electrical fixtures. They wrote computer programs, drafted machine parts, and built structures of wood.

For three hours in the morning, the competitors worked on practical projects and were interrogated by professionals in their trade. The atmosphere of quiet concentration would have inspired any educator.

After lunch, the students returned for written exams that concluded the competition. Then, the local professionals who had generously donated their time to act as judges compiled the results. The students waited anxiously, because the top three in each shop would earn the right to represent for the State competition, to be held on April 2 and 3 in Lexington, Mass. A National event will be held some time in June in Atlanta, Georgia.

If the Old Colony in-school competition is any indication of what's to come in future competitions, business and industry representatives would do well to get involved. This is truly a showcase for the young, talented vocational students of this area.

Local businesses sponsor the VICA competitions and will often provide personnel to act as judges. This enables them to get a first-hand look at prospective employees.

So, something positive is happening in our schools with the help of the business community; and as this mutually beneficial relationship develops, we may see even greater achievements.

Heart attack or stroke could knock you down on your way up.

You're working for the challenge, the satisfaction, the success. The last thing you want is a heart attack or stroke. Yet nearly one million Americans die of heart disease and stroke every year. And 200,000 of them die before retirement age.

The American Heart Association is fighting to reduce early death and disability from heart disease and stroke with research, professional and public education, and community service programs.

But more needs to be done.

You can help us find the answers by sending your dollars today to your local Heart Association, listed in your telephone directory.

SATURDAY PROGRAM

The pesty Gypsy Moth which was accidentally introduced into Massachusetts in 1869 has plagued New England and surrounding states ever since with its insatiable foliage-consuming appetite. According to the Massachusetts Audubon magazine, the gypsy moth has reached such destructive proportions that there is a State administrative program exclusively created to deal with the menace and "the moths are, by law, an official public nuisance". Government and private agencies have spent "hundreds of millions of dollars" funding programs and spraying insecticides. Most of the tax money spent on these programs has been like "spraying money into the air". The insecticides have been ineffectual where the gypsy moth is concerned but have had substantial and far-reaching adverse effects on the environment and on the population. All of this controversy had made environmentalists take a good hard look at the gypsy moth and wonder if it shouldn't, in fact, have been left alone. The Children's Museum will present a program on this controversial insect, courtesy of the Massachusetts Audubon Society. Museum member Mr. Leonard Kennedy will be on hand with research specimens and to answer questions. Please join us for the fascinating story of the on-going battle between the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and a very persistent insect. The program starts at 2:00 p.m. this Saturday, February 21st, and open to ages seven and up. There is a small charge for non-members.

Mattapoisett Woman's Club

February 26th at 1 p.m. we will have our monthly meeting at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church Parish Hall. We are looking forward to a visit by Mrs. Garry R. Keessen, President of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs. Ms. Luice Moncevitich, a Mattapoisett resident, will be our afternoon speaker. Ms. Moncevitich is an artist, teacher, and tarot card reader, as well as a first generation Russian-Lithuanian, with a long history of social service to our community. Her discussion will be based on personal discoveries while working on her doctorate degree in Art Education. Ms. Moncevitich's interest in the art work of children is largely based on a book of art and poetry called "...I Never Saw Another Butterfly", by the children of Terezin, one of the Nazi concentration camps. We will be learning more about these children, their art, and its effects on their lives. Baby sitting will be available.
